Consent form for school

The American Academy of International Culture and Education (AAICE) welcomes your school to join our 2023 National Chinese Speech Contest (NCSC). Pictures and videos of your submitted works may be shown for NCSC Finals or/and online display when chosen. Your works will be used on our website or/and in other related venues in the future to promote the educational benefits of Chinese programs.

By signing this form, you indicate that you have read the consent information and that you voluntarily agree to participate in the activities and for media materials to be used for the fore-mentioned educational related purposes. It is further understood you will not receive any monetary compensation or be charged for any expenses incurred in these events.
